VOL. XVIII.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, AUGUST 11, 1896.

NO. 62

TENNESSEE 25,000.

FOLLOWS CLOSE UPON ALABAMA'S GLORIOUS RECORD.

Net Democratic gain over the vote cast for Turner, in 1894, of 15,041.

Under Democratic rule.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 7.—Up to midnight to-night reports have been received here from forty counties. Most of these reports are from counties in Middle and West Tennessee, but they show substantial Democratic gains over the vote cast for Turner in 1894. Based on the gains so far reported the Democratic nominees for the County of Hancock Appraisals will have 25,000 in 30,000 majority.

In a table showing the minorities in thirty-seven counties the Democrats make gains in twenty-six while five counties show Republican losses. Two counties show Republican gains and four Democratic losses. The Democratic gains and Republican losses as far as heard from figure out 10,721, while the Democratic loss and Republican gains only total 1,680. This makes a net Democratic gain over the vote cast for Turner in 1894 of 15,041.

The Democrats have more than held their own in the matter of selecting county officers. In several counties (union tickets were buried under Democratic ballots, while fusionists only triumphed in a few places.

M'KINLEY ON SILVER.

From a speech in the House of Representatives, June 14, 1896.—Congressional Record, Vol. 31, Page 9, 447.

I am for the largest use of silver in the currency of the country. I would not dishonor it; I would give it equal credit and honor with gold. I would make no discrimination. I would not use both metals as money and discredit neither. I want the double standard.

DEATH OF CY BROWN.

A Prominent Republican Leader Passes Away.

Mr. Cyrus M. Brown, Christian county representative in the Legislature, and a prominent Republican leader, died of flux in this city at 11 o'clock Sunday night, after an illness of about ten days. His condition was considered serious until a few days before his death, when the disease took a fatal turn.

Mr. Brown was born February 20, 1818. He obtained a practical education, and for ten years was a prominent teacher of the county, in which he was eminently successful, and during which time he developed a literary talent of no mean order. In 1880 he was elected to the office of Sheriff, and was re-elected in 1882. He was later along elected Circuit Clerk, serving a term of six years.

He was one of the best known men in this section, and had a host of friends who will learn with sincere regret of his demise.

The funeral procession left the city with the remains at 3 o'clock p. m., yesterday, for the family burying ground, near Crofton, where the interment took place. The pall bearers were: H. H. Gokey, J. P. Prowse, W. H. R. O. H. Anderson, C. C. Crayton, J. E. Clifton, John Feland, Jr., and John W. Wilks.

Mrs. Oscar Lyons, of Mayfield, who surprised the world by giving birth to quintuplets, and later shocked it by exhibiting the embalmied bodies for a fee, reported as being "very mad" at the course of a New York paper which had secured interviews with prominent people denouncing the exhibition as barbarous. However, she and her husband will not discontinue the exhibition, and Paedocoph people will soon be given an opportunity of seeing the revolting sight.—Times.

Robert Pollock, the fourteen-year-old stepson of Ed Davis, a coal miner of Central City, while working in a saw-pit of the Central City Planning Mill, came in contact with the saw and his left arm was sawed off just below the elbow.

Horses Killed By a Bear.

An unusual case of ferocity displayed by a domestic animal is reported to have occurred a day or two ago in the vicinity of Salons' Rest, in the lower portion of the county, on the farm of the widow Minor.

Two fine mares were grazing in a lot, when they were attacked by a rapacious bear. One of the animals was struck on the leg and the flesh ripped down, causing the animal to fall, when the maddened hog literally cut the mare to pieces with its tusks, making twenty-one wounds. The other mare received one incision of the hog's tusks deep into the side, but was sufficient to cause death. The male was also attacked after the two horses had been killed, but after receiving two wounds the male managed to escape to run the lot.—Clarkeville Star Chronicle.

Safe in the Asylum.

Thomas Brown, the Webster county farmer, who in a fit of frenzy attempted to murder his wife and child and mother-in-law, at a home near Dixon, last week, was brought to this city Saturday night and confined in the asylum, having been adjudged of unsound mind by a jury. He had attempted to kill his victims with an ax handle, and leaving them for dead went and gave himself up to a neighbor. He was tried for his crimes but was declared crazy. It is thought his wife will recover. He is only 30 years old.

Negroes Knife Each Other.

A cutting affair which may result serious took place at the L. & N. depot Saturday evening just after the 5:30 train going South had passed. William Ware, the colored janitor at several tobacco offices, came upon his wife in conversation with Mose Lewis, colored, upon whom he used his knife freely. In return Lewis cut Ware in the left side inflicting a long, deep gash, that may result fatally, possibly the cause of the trouble. Lewis' wounds are not considered dangerous.

Two Crushed to Death.

Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 6.—James Green, bridge carpenter on the O. & N. railroad, and John Ford, laborer, a station five miles from this city. They were engaged in building a trestle for a water tank, when the trestle fell, crushing them to death. Ford's body being cut in two. They were brought to Owensboro, an inquest held and their remains conveyed to Russellville, their home.

A Pastor Called.

The Christian church of Hopkinsville on Sunday morning formally called to the pastorate of the church Ed. H. G. Smith, of Missouri. Mr. Smith is a young man whose family consists of a wife and one child. There is no doubt that he will accept the call. He is expected to arrive the first of next month.

A Murderer Arrested.

James Lawrence, colored, who is wanted in Mississippi for a murder committed over two years ago, was arrested near Fredonia, by W. T. Ackridge, Saturday. His captor will receive a reward of $750. Lawrence will be taken back to Mississippi for trial.

Tell and Broke His Arm.

A five-year-old son of Mr. J. E. Mascham, who lives a few miles east of the city, fell from a fence Friday night and fractured one of his arms.

Bryan and Sewall clubs are now being organized in the town. Princeton starts off one with 124 members and Dawson has already enrolled 90 names.

DR. CLARDY'S WALKOVER.

But One Ballot Needed to Give Him a Re-election.

Dr. J. D. Clardy was renominated at Madisonville yesterday as the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Second district. The county convention of Wednesday had virtually settled all questions of doubt by apportioning the votes under the pro rata plan adopted in the call. The following table gives the official returns in all the counties, the fractions for convenience being reduced to decimals:

Counties	CLARDY.	TANNER.
Christian	2	0
Daviess	106	24
Hancock	2	1
Henderson	169	531
Scott	10	0
McLean	5	25
Union	758	142
Webster	36	15

Total 47.87 14.13

It will be seen that Dr. Clardy carried six of the eight counties. The only opposition at all formidable grew out of the defeat of Judge Yeaman in Christian county. The last week of the campaign was quite lively and exciting, and nothing but Dr. Clardy's ability as a rapid organizer and his extensive acquaintance and loyal following in all the precincts kept him from having a doubtful race on his hands. If the contest had lasted a week longer and his opponents had been given an opportunity to bring out new candidates in Hopkinsville, the result would have been extremely doubtful. Dr. Clardy was elected over E. G. Sebree in 1894, receiving 18,363 votes to 10,381 for Sebree. 4,385 for Turner, Populist, and 426 for Holmes, Prohibitionist. His plurality was 2,382. In the election of 1892 the Populist vote was 2,903. The figures show that about 10,000 of the voters returned to the Democratic party in 1894 and last year the Populist vote dropped to 4,086 in the Governor's race. This year it is probable that no Populist candidate will be entered in the race and that Dr. Clardy will get all of the votes of the weak candidates.

Frank, is the weak candidate, and will lose enough Republican votes to offset the defections from the Democratic party on the currency question, and Clardy's majority this year will be not less than 6,000 and it may go as high as 8,000 or 10,000.

BRYAN AND SEWALL CLUB.

Democratic Rally at the Court House.

Several hundred names have already been enrolled for membership in the Bryan and Sewall club to be organized at the court house to-night. Democrats are showing more interest and enthusiasm in politics than ever known before. The working people especially are thoroughly aroused and a vote will be lost among them. The club is organized to-night will be a rouse and the campaign will shortly be opened with a tremendous war and ratification meeting in or near this city. Every loyal and stalwart Democrat hasten to get into it, and begin the work of informing, educating and reclaiming those who are weakened in Democratic faith and whose votes are in danger of being controlled by a love of gold. People are clamoring for silver literature and are eager to hear the question discussed. Let the club gather into the folds all true Democrats in the city and be in a position to cooperate with the campaign committee in a thorough organization of the city and county.

OVER THE STATE.

Walter Chamberlain, said to be from Louisville, was mortally wounded at Jacksonville, Fla., while trying to hold up a bank teller. He is not known there.

Frank Spoonamore, a young theological student, was sent to jail at Stanford, having been found guilty of a serious charge preferred by a servant girl.

T. J. Arnett, formerly a member of the Legislature, and Frank Atcheson, a light over politics in Magoffin county and both were badly injured.

In Muhlenberg county Thomas Hall and Terry James fought with knives. James is dead and Hall is dying.

The liabilities of the Columbus Buggy Company, which failed a few days ago, are estimated at $300,000.

The tobacco receipts on the Paducah market this year have been 11,008 hogsheads.

Charles Adams, of Stanford, sustained fatal injuries by being run over by a train at Parksville.

Harry Grubbs was killed in Anderson county by being thrown from his horse.

FIVE LEGAL LIGHTS.

BISHOPS' LOCAL ATTORNEYS WRITE A CARD.

Undertake to Lecture the Yeaman Delegates For Not Voting For Bishop—Allege a Verbal Agreement Not in the Written Contract.

A lengthy card appeared in a local paper Thursday signed by five distinguished members of the Legal fraternity—Messrs. C. H. Bush, W. R. Howell, Hunter Wood, W. M. Reed and T. J. Morrow. These gentlemen undertook to criticize the action of Messrs. Chas. M. Meacham and W. A. Wilgus for using their votes as Yeaman delegates in an attempt to force the withdrawal of Judge Bishop.

Two of them, Messrs. Bush and Howell—were parties to the written agreement under which the vote of the county was divided. Messrs. Wood and Reed signed it as witnesses and Judge Morrow assisted in getting the parties together but left before the agreement was signed.

The gentlemen in their card admit all of the facts claimed in the agreement and seem to have rushed into print to set each other's words.

Deny as they may, the fact remains that Messrs. Meacham and Wilgus acted under an agreement they were urged to go into by the Bishop men, and they violated no part of that agreement or in any other manner failed to act in entire good faith.

When Mr. Meacham was conducted to the place of meeting by Judge Morrow, he found five Bishop men present and thinking there too many spiders for one poor fly he made some jocular remarks expressing doubt of his ability to cope with five Bishop men, all lawyers and political experts. While the gentlemen were explaining their proposition Mr. Wilgus arrived and it was submitted to him. Mr. Wilgus promptly declined to accept it, but all of the gentlemen except Judge Morrow urged, and finally Mr. Wilgus expressed himself in favor of the proposition and after a further conference it was reluctantly agreed to by Mr. Meacham, with the understanding that every detail should be reduced to writing. This was done and the statement that Mr. Wilgus or Mr. Meacham agreed to any matter under the written agreement is not true. The agreement was rewritten two or three times to make it cover every point and the Bishop men, all lawyers and political experts, with an occasional suggestion from the Yeaman men. There were no promises made that were not reduced to writing, the statement to the contrary notwithstanding. It was impossible to tell how the county would go at that time and neither side was in a position to take advantage of the other in drawing up the agreement, consequently both sides insisted that all points be covered fully. The claim now made by the Yeaman men entered into a written agreement to let each side act "independently of the other," and at the same time each side bound themselves by verbal agreement to vote for Bishop as a second choice, is so plainly contrary to reason and in conflict with common sense that it is a reflection upon the intelligence of the Yeaman men to even notice it seriously.

This point is the only one the gentlemen seem to have attached much importance to in their card and since it is not founded on facts, there is really not much occasion for replying to this. We have previously given a truthful statement of the facts in the case and appeal to the written record to settle whatever question of veracity that may have been raised by these learned lawyers, who would have the public believe they could not jointly write a contract to convey the idea contained in their own proposition.

As to the moral lecture the gentlemen attempted to deliver, we will only say we have clear consciences on this point. If Mr. Meacham or Mr. Wilgus had ever "betrayed" anybody or failed to act in "good faith," or as "honorably" men during the twenty years they have lived in this community, they have failed to have their attention called to it. If those who now claim to have been "duped" by the Yeaman men, have been equally fortunate we are willing to give a courteous hearing to their dissertation on morals and questions of honor, but we would be better perhaps to drop that branch of the subject.

Messrs. Meacham and Wilgus made no agreement, written or verbal, to vote otherwise than "independent" of the Bishop side. The agreement is in the custody of one of the gentlemen who signed the card. Why was it not published? It speaks for itself. It is the only agreement made and covers the whole case. Under it the Yeaman delegates could not have been loyal if they had voted otherwise than as his interests demanded. His only hope was to force Bishop out of the race and then receive his votes in a stampede to beat White. If they had deserted him at the critical point, when he was still in the race, having been neither dropped nor withdrawn, it would have been a political treachery and a violation of their plain instructions. They were instructed to "represent Yeaman" and not to save Bishop from defeat, as these gentlemen would have the public believe.

Yeaman's race was never hopeless until the last ballot, when Bishop refused to withdraw and his friends in Christian county defeated Yeaman by refusing to change to him, even after 12 votes in Marshall and Meade—enough to nominate with Christian's votes—had been changed from Bishop to Yeaman.

Bishop was clearly defeated and Yeaman could and would not have been nominated but for the persistent refusal of a few men in the Christian county delegation to change. It is a fact that several of them were nominated but for the persistent refusal of a few men in the Christian county delegation to change. M'GONIGAL'S DILEMMA.

Much Confused by the "Striking of the Town Clock."

"Phwat's the mainin' of that?" said Policeman McConigal to himself as he lazily pushed aside several bundles of shingles beneath which he had hidden to escape from the rain, and possibly to take a nap. "Phwat is the mainin' that the new town clock do be after striking wan three times running?" runs a story in the Washington Star.

It was late at night and Mr. Mc-Conigal had been hired by the local temperance union to watch Casey's saloon for stray deacons and other outlaws. As he crouched among the bundles of shingles in the back yard waiting for the hour of two a. m., when his relief was due, his last waking remembrance was that the town clock struck "wan." In a few minutes, as he believed, he heard the bell again toll "wan," but when the third "wan" came booming through the air the McConigal blood was up, and the remark quoted at the beginning of this tale was uttered. "Some biaggard is shivering to sport wid me, or mebbe it's dreaming Ole am." To assure himself of his lucidity of mind he rapidly and accurately ran over some detective formulas, in humble imitation of the late Sherlock Holmes. "It's cabbage they've had for supper; Ole know it by the schmel. It's beer they've been drinking began; Ole can tell it by the dhry feeling in me throat." Reassured by these methodical tests, he became positive that his mind was as clear as usual, but he was unequal to the solution of the problem of the three "wans" of the clock. To solve the puzzle he crept up to the back door of the saloon, where his presence excited no comment. Calling softly to Mrs. Casey, she approached with a mug of beer wherewith to propitiate the majesty of the law.

"Did ye hear the dom clock strolke wan the mint ago, Mrs. Casey?"

"Ole did not, but I heard it strike half-past wan, Mr. McConigal."

"Then Ole was dreamin'," said Mc-Conigal. "Ole thought Ole heard it strolke wan. Did ye hear it strolke wan awhile afore that, Mrs. Casey?"

"Ole did wan."

"That's right; so did Ole. Ye didn't hear it strolke wan afore wan, did ye, Mrs. Casey?"

"Ole did not; Ole heard it strolke half-past twelve."

"Then it's five, Ole am, Mrs. Casey, and me head is not right wid me heard work. Ole thought Ole heard the clock strolke wan three times runnin'. Would ye give me another sup of beer afore Ole go home?"

A Sketch of Charles Lamb.

As his frame, so was his genius.
It was as fit for thought as could be,
and equally as unfit for action; and this rendered him melancholy, apprehensive, humorous, and willing to make the best of everything, as he was, both from tenderness of heart and abhorrence of alteration. His understanding was too great to admit an absurdity; his frame was not strong enough to deliver it from a fear. His sensibility to strong contrasts was the foundation of his humor, which was that of a wit at once melancholy and willing to be pleased. He would beard a superstition and shudder at the old phantasm while he did it. One could have imagined him cracking a jest in the teeth of a ghost, and then melting into thin air himself, out of sympathy with the awful. His humor and his knowledge both were those of Hamlet, of Moliere, of Carlin, who shook a city with laughter, and, in order to divert his melancholy, was recommended to go and hear himself.—Lungt's Autobiography.

First Man Dressmaker.

The first man who made a name as a woman's dressmaker was Rhomberg, the son of a Bavarian peasant from the neighborhood of Munich.
One day in 1730 a beautiful carriage appeared on the boulevard of Paris, with an escutcheon in the shape of a pair of corsets and an open pair of scissors painted on the panel of each door. This was Rhomberg's coat of arms. He owed his rapid success to his genius for conceiving and remedying defects of figure. He left an income of 50,000 francs a year to his heirs.

Forests and Health.

In the French departments where forests have been cut down there has been a marked decrease in the number of births and an increase in that of deaths during 30 years. In the last five years the excess of deaths over births was 80,000, and the mortality in the departments was nine times as great as in the rest of France. M. Jeannel infers from this that the forests are an important factor in the health of France.

A Memorial Chapel.

It is ten years since mad King Louis II. of Bavaria was drowned in the Starnberger See. The anniversary was observed this year by

FOR JUDGE COURT OF APPEALS, JAMES D. WHITE,
OF BALLARD.

WE DEMAND the free and an unlimited coinage of both gold and silver at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the aid or consent of any other nation. We demand that the standard silver dollar shall be a full legal tender equally with gold for all debts, public and private.—Democratic National Platform, 1896.

Free coinage means that silver and gold bullion shall be coined without charge by the United States mints.
Unlimited coinage means that all the gold and all the silver present at the United States mints shall be coined into money.

The ratio of 16 to 1 means that the number of grains of pure silver in a silver dollar shall be sixteen times the number of grains of pure gold in a gold dollar.

By a full legal tender it means that when a debtor offers either gold or silver to a creditor in any sum whatever, the creditor is bound to accept the same and discharge the debtor from his liability.

Posters headed "Notice of Democratic Mass Meeting," have been put up in this city, calling for a "convention" August 15 at the court house.
These circulars claim to be posted
"By order of the Democratic State Executive Committee." In so far as they claim to be issued under the authority of the Democratic organization, the circulars are based on false pretences. They are issued by bottlers and disorganizers, who have no official communication with the Democratic party. They cannot get a place on the official ballots except by petition and cannot use either the name or the device of the Democratic party under the laws of the State of Kentucky. No honorable man would want into the Democratic convention in this county on May 25 can engage in this bolting movement without violating his implied pledge of honor to support the party nominees. No true Democrat will be there.

The bolting gold standard faction of the Democratic party will hold its convention at Indianapolis September 2nd and put out a ticket. It is said that Gen. Briggs, of Wisconsin, and Gen.
Buckner, of Kentucky, will be the nominees. The bolting faction then solves "National Democrats," having surrendered the term "sound money" to the Republicans. The news that the goldbug roge is really to be divided is almost too good to believe.

The Courier-Journal's "O.D. Lytle" the Democrats are having a hard time finding a name to suit them. On the question of platform they will have no difficulty. They will simply adopt the McKinley currency plank.

A SENSELESS FEUD.

A senseless political feud has been created between Henderson and Christian counties, which it may take years to eradicate, through the failure of Hon. Malcolm Yeaman to secure the solid support of Christian county in his race for judge of the court of appeals. Though Dr. Clardy and his immediate personal and political friends did all in their power to nominate Mr. Yeaman, some unreasonable people in Henderson county undertook to have revenge on Christian by doing their utmost to defeat Dr.
Clardy, and succeeded in carrying a majority of the Henderson county precincts against him.

It is true that Mr. Yeaman lost the appellate judgeship through the vote of Christian county men, but Dr.
Clardy and his friends did all in their power to avert this. They were the best supporters that Yeaman had, taking far greater interest in his race than many of those in Henderson who had got upon their legs and howled after it was too late to do him any good. Even after these revengeful Henderson people turned upon Clardy and tried to beat him, these Clardy men were working night and day to accomplish the nomination of Yeaman, and they came much nearer doing it than anybody supposed they could, in view of the lukewarm support given Yeaman at Henderson. Mr.
Yeaman was by far the ablest man offering for appellate court judge, and it is a shame that Christian county votes defeated him. Nevertheless, the conduct of Henderson in stabbing Clardy after all he and his friends had done for Yeaman was far more shameful. The feud thus made is deplorable. The men in Christian county who defeated Mr.
Yeaman have placed themselves on a permanent black list all through the Second district, but these Christian county men, who so ably managed Yeaman's campaign won the respect and admiration of the whole district.
What can those in Henderson county, who failed to do serviceable work for Yeaman, and yet tried to slaughter those who did, expect in the future of this district?—Owensboro Messenger.

H. Clay Evans' county, including the city of Chattanooga, west Democratic by 300 majority last week and the result was followed up by the announcement that Mr. Evans would not be a candidate for Governor. H.
Clay is no fool and he can see that this is going to be a Democratic year and that Bob Taylor will carry Tennessee by 30,000 majority.

A Louisville goldbug has hit upon the scheme of paying off his hands in Mexican dollars at bullion value, an argument against silver. This proves nothing except that it is the stamp of the government that makes the money. Mexican dollars are not legal tender in this country and consequently are not money.

Gen. Simon Bolivar Buckner's bolt creates no surprise and will attract no attention except to cause a feeling of disgust among Democrats who have honored Gen. Buckner with their votes in the past. In this great contest for financial freedom the old gentleman is too rich to be a Democrat and the plutocrats can take him.

One of the Calloway delegates who attended the recent convention here was Mr. Jas. H. Coleman, who is considered the ablest as well as the handsomest member of the Murray bar. While here Mr. Coleman took occasion to formally launch his 1897 boom for commonwealth's attorney.

The Louisville correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer is authority for the statement that Judge B. L. D.
Guffy, of the Court of Appeals, has declared for Bryan and Sewall and says Butler county will go Democratic.

Senator Squire, of Washington, has come out flatfooted for Bryan and Sewall, making the eighth Republican Senator to so declare himself.
The tide is already rolling too high to be ever turned back.

A white man was sold at auction in Kentucky last week, and yet we are told that "the existing gold standard must be preserved." Let's try something else.

Senator Gibson, of Maryland, has declared for Bryan and Sewall and predicts that Maryland will go Democratic.

tating the question of a railroad from

WHEAT AT ONE DOLLAR A BUSHEL.

The New York Sun, edited by Chas.
A. Dana, is known as one of the ablest newspapers in the United States. It is also known as a corporation paper. It fought for protection, against the income tax and is one of the strongest gold standard papers in the country advocating the election of McKinley. The Sun last week contained the following editorial on the results of free silver.

"THE OWNERS OF REAL ESTATE AND
OF TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY WILL NEITHER LOSE NOR GAIN BY AN ALTERA-TION IN THE MONEY STANDARD. HENCE
EVERY ONE WHO HAS MONEY AT HIS DIS-POSAL CAN PROTECT HIMSELF AGAINST LOSS THROUGH FREE SILVER BY CON-VERTING HIS MONEY INTO LAND, HOUSES AND MERCANDISE. IF HE BORROWS MORE MONEY AND USES IT FOR THE SAME PUR-POSES, HE WILL MAKE A PROFIT ON THE TRANSACTION AT THE EXPENSE OF THE MAN FROM WHOM HE BORROWS. UNDER THE REGIMEN OF SILVER AT 16 TO 1 A FARM OR A HOUSE OR A HOUSE AND LOT NOW WORTH $10,000 WILL BE WORTH $20,000.
A BUSHEL OF WHEAT NOW SELLING FOR FIFTY CENTS WILL SELL FOR $1 AND SUGAR, COFFEE, TEA AND SIMILAR AR-TICLES WILL ADVANCE IN THE SAME PRO-PORTION."

The above is a free and full free-silver claim. It is an admission that the gold standard has reduced the price of all real estate and farm products and that the free and unlimited coinage of silver will restore the price. The farmers of this country want their wheat to go to $1 a bushel and all other products in that proportion.
This is exactly what they are fighting for in this contest as they cannot make a living at present prices. Every farmer in Kentucky no matter what his previous political affiliation, should study this confession of this gold standard McKinley organ of New York and vote for Bryan and Sewall. According to the Sun this will be a vote for $1 a bushel for wheat, increased value of farm lands and all farm products. Our Democratic readers should see that the Republicans are flimsier than news from the Sun.—Elizabethtown News.

The total crop of watermelons marketed by Posey county, Ind., growers

The hot weather has caused a great demand for this fruit and prices have profitable this year than the wheat crop.

MAIDS AT WAYSIDE INNS

A Lucrative Profession for Girls Opened Up by the Bicycle.

The English barmaid was never a success, never even able to gain a foothold behind the saloon counter in this country. The sorriest toppers lifted up their very groggy visages in a respectable manner, protesting against this degradation of feminine pride, and it has only been since the arrival of the bicycle that anything like the British barmaid has come into active employment on our side of the water. Cure is a very delicate copy of the English public house fairy, however, and she is usually the daughter or niece of the hospitable character, who runs a first-class road house for those who go by wheeling.

Now, the very best of road houses and renovated wayside inns are merely taverns, where the tastes of all throats are accustomed to be satisfied and at first they were open to men only. So great has become the army of feminine bicyclists and so genuine was their request for refreshment that the male manager, finding it to their advantage to open pretty little gardens and neat little parlors where the most careful attention will be specially given to feminine wants. By way of assuring peace and encouragement, to the hot, thirsty woman, who is in search of a place of rest, these inviting respectable haunts are put under the direction of a nice girl.

The girl's duty is apparently to keep the shady parlor tidy, direct the guests to the simple wooden stalls for tethering bicycles by the front steps and take orders for food things. At one time the woman at rest on Staten Island for example a group of very thirsty cyclists were ushered into a cool parlor, excellently neat and homelike with its matted floor, open piano, horse-hair furniture and flower boxes on the wall. The daughter of the next door saloon's proprietor was in charge, and offered a choice of refreshing beverages from a long list of tempting drinkables. Ginger ale, root beer, lime squash, lemonade, food fruit syrups and milk were the chief items on what could not be called a wine list, since it contained nothing in the least intoxicating. Sandwiches, bread and butter, cream of various sorts, chocolate and cakes could be had with any of the liquids, and while the little maid hustled out to fill the orders the wheelwomen straightened their things before the mirror, smoothed the palm-leaf fans strewn about and looked into the picture papers on the table.

When the three tall glasses of ginger ale and jingling ice had been supplied, the girl was ready to change and gave a little ducking bow when one of the patrons dropped an extra dime into her palm. She evidently expected the tip and the wheelwoman didn't in the least begrudge it. The girl was a real douseur from a bicyclist who brought his wife in for something cool, but apparently men were not received unless accompanied by women. However, in spite of this sensible rule, the little parlor seemed to have plenty of the best sort of patronage and the little maid was an agreeable sight to see in her plain print gown, large white apron with a ruffled bow and a rose in her sleek hair instead of a cap.

So far as the three widely wandering wheelwomen have gone these cozy rests for the sex that ride drop frames, are on the increase. They are found at long intervals, it is true, but their number is growing. Sometimes it's a parlor and sometimes it's a hedged off bit of garden one will find, where those who carry a pack-age of lunch strapped to their hands can rest the use of a table, the proper implements for dining and find a girl in charge. The girl is nearly always attentive and expectant of her tip, but ready to take a stitch in a hem or broken seam, to brush off dirt, bend down to help a lady's fair to open up a very lucrative profession, vastly more protected and self-respecting, however, than that of the English barmaid.—Rooster Post-Express.

Used to Be All Waste.

Many men can remember the huge piles of cotton seed which before and for several years after the war accumulated in the vicinity of southern gins and were sometimes burned, or, where convenient, thrown into the river to be got rid of as refuse of no value. The piles of formerly rejected waste last year yielded to the southern planters 21,187,728 gallons of cotton-seed oil for export, for which $6,913,313 was returned to this country.

Milkmaids of To-day.

There was once a time, if you have been a great many tender pastorals and madrigals, such as "Kitt Marlowe sang, when there were milkmaids. But milkmaids nowadays are mostly Connaught men, in cowhide boots and black satin waistcoats, who say "begorra," and beat the cow with the milking stool.

JUST ONE THING.

It is cured by Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. It cures that terrible time that one thing is inflammation of the mucous membrane of the lungs, bronchitis, colds, croup, catarrh of the head or throat, cold in the head, whooping cough, asthma, bronchitis, whooping cough, sore throat, loss of voice or hoarseness are all due to inflammation of the mucous membrane. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is a quick and safe cure for this particular class of complaints. It is not good for other complaints. It is pleasant to take. Children like it and will ask for it. It is harmless. It is made from pine, tar and honey. Old folks think that these are good, harmless medicines. In Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey they are combined by new and scientific methods with vegetable plants, giving them remarkable results. There is another remedy, remedy on the market that does not claim to cure consumption. Such a claim is a ridiculous falsehood. Put the two remedies in a balance and a lie to sell them. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey is put up in 25c, 50c and $1 bottles. If the druggist does not keep it, will be sent upon receipt of price by the E. E. Sutherland, Fountain Park, Paducah, Ky. There is no other remedy so good. When a druggist says so, it is the sign of his profits and not of his welfare. IT IS A HOUSEHOLD NECESSITY.

DISEASES OF THE SKIN.

The intense itching and smarting incident to eczema, tetter, salt-rheum, and other diseases of the skin is instantly allayed by applying Colman's Eye and Ears Ointment. Many very bad cases have been permanently cured by it. It is equally effective for itching piles, hemorrhoids, remedy for sore nipples, chapped hands, chilblains, frost bites and chronic sore eyes. For sale by all druggists at 25c per bottle.

Try Dr. Cady's Condition Powders, they are just what a home needs when in bad condition. Tonic, blood purifier and vermifuge.

Sold by R. C. Hardwick, druggist.

Since 1878 there have been nine epidemics of dysentery in different parts of the country in which Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used with perfect success. Dysentery, when epidemic, is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Therefore the best efforts of the most skilled physicians have failed to check its ravages, this remedy, however, has cured the most violent cases both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions, which proves it to be the best medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by R. C. Hardwick, druggist.

A MODERN RIP VAN WINKLE

Has Recovered His Faculties After Twenty-four Years of Sleep.

The village of Graysville has developed a strange case as viewed from a medical standpoint—that of a man who had lain upon his bed for 24 years, during a great part of which time he was blind and speechless, and sometimes unable to hear, but can now walk about with the aid of crutches, and his eyesight, voice and hearing are all restored. This man is Asa McClure, a member of the late war, being a member of Company C, Eighteenth Pennsylvania cavalry, and will be remembered by many of his old comrades.

In the early part of the seventies he was taken ill and became bedfast. He lost the use of his body, and finally sank into a half-conscious state, during which he lost both eyesight and power to speak, and during this time could not hear. Some time before his illness his mind became temporarily affected, and he attempted to take his life by shooting. The ball struck him near the base of the skull, but failed to penetrate the skull. But little injury was done, apparently, by the wound, and he went about for several months afterwards. After he became ill his case baffled the aid of physicians.

Much of the time he would lie upon his bed with his head and entire body under covers. He would show no sign of recognition, and his food was frequently pushed under the door. He could not hear, and thus he was able to sustain life. This lasted during a period of about 24 years. After the first few years old acquaintances ceased their visits, and his almost dropped out of the remembrance of his neighbors. The following strange story relates the following strange story. A short time ago he felt strength suddenly return to his body, and had an old man to drink. He tried to do so and found that he could hear. About the same time he found his eyesight restored. He had not uttered a sound for years, but the thought occurred to him to make an effort to speak and he found his voice restored.

His first attempt to walk was by resting his hands upon the back of a chair and pushing it along, but he now uses crutches. He has forgotten many words, and these were taught him by an old child who is instructed. In the same way he was taught to read again. Everything was new to him. He, however, remembered the names and faces of former acquaintances, and he has been able to find out that he had not seen him for many years met him at the store at Graysville, and was quickly recognized by McClelland. The latter refers to the period of his life prior to his illness as one who has been in another part of the country for many years and has just returned. He speaks of places about the village as "when I was here before they looked so and so." He says there were some houses in the houses in Graysville when he was there then.

Like Rip Van Winkle, he seems to have awakened from a long dream. He says that during his illness he was many times able to hear what was said, but had not the power to whisper even a reply. He has an insatiable place of land, and draws a small pension, and says he now is able to conduct his own business. Mr. McClelland is 54 years old, and formerly worked in the painting trade.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Lepers in Europe.

Lepers are not so uncommon in Europe as one might think. One was picked up in the Paris streets recently and sent to the St. Louis Hospital, where there already were six other patients with the same disease. There are isolated cases dotted all over France, while the lepers' hospitals at San Remo and in Spain and Portugal are never without patients. They are gaining ground in Turkey and the Ionian Islands. Crete has 600 of them. They are most numerous, however, in Norway, where there are 800, and are rapidly increasing in Sweden, which has already 462. In British India there are 100,000 lepers. The Chinese lepers, India, China, Tongking, China and Japan, as well as Haiti, Trinidad, Guiana, Venezuela, Brazil and Paraguay.

Up to Date Africans.

King Khama of Bechuanaland was in England last summer to protest against Mr. Rhodes' chartered company selling liquor to his people. He has recently sent an example of civilization to his subjects by having an up-to-date wedding at Palmyra. He went to the altar in a frock coat, light trousers and a white tie, his bride, a young woman of 20, wore white satin, a tulle veil and orange blossoms. The minister was an English missionary, and there was a wedding cake. The only unusual thing was the hour, nine o'clock in the morning.

Terrible Abcesses Cured
"When our little daughter, three years old she fell from a loft and strained her spine. Since that time she has been subject to spinal disease and lost the use of her limbs. Abcesses formed on the left side of her back bone and they discharged continuously. After taking five or six bottles the abcesses were healed and she was a healthy child, excepting for the deformity of her limbs." Rev. B. Ward, Chaplin, Ky.

Was a Good Circus
Lent's circus gave two exhibitions in the city yesterday. The tent was crowded at each performance and the crowd was well pleased with the exhibition. While the circus is not as fine as the one at Louisville, it is quite as enjoyable. It was on the order of the old fashioned circus and possessed many features more attractive than are seen in many more pretentious aggregations.—Bowling Green Times.

TOBACCO NEWS.

HOPKINSVILLE MARKET.
(Reported by J. H. Egerton, of Alfred Lewis & Co., Local Dealers.)

Hopkinsville, Aug. 6.—Continued hot weather prevails and it was almost unbearable throughout the three days' sale. The offerings were light on very poor nondescript tobacco and there was very little life and animation on the market. Have to be here to the market irregular and lower on all grades. While there was less good tobacco on sale than any time this year the demand was not so good as here tofore and prices ruled near inside figures. Reports are coming in from all sections that worms are so numerous that it is impossible to keep them off the plants with the present labor and the hot rays of the sun are so severe that it is very difficult to work and especially to get extra help to work. As fast as they go over it and get back to the starting point they find as many worms as they did before. In some cases they are plowing the crop under in order to save the other from the ravages of the worms. In other cases the have turned out part of the crop for the destroyers to eat at will. Some farmers are using the pruning knife to save the crop from the mighty worms, therefore the acreage will be cut short from the first estimate. Receipts exceedingly light this week.

L. B. LENT'S CIRCUS
Will Exhibit Here Next Thursday, Aug. 7.

The Indianapolis Journal says of Lent's show, to be here Thursday: "The outfit is entirely new, from the train of specially conducted cars to the cook tents."

The performance was frequently applauded. Among the performers may be named many male and female stars of arena fame. Space forbids of anything like a full enumeration of the many acts and features. All told there were thirty acts—male and female arrival artists, really funny clown, expert gymnasts, trained horses, dogs, and bit of everything that is interesting and much that is new. A particular pleasing feature of the show was the absence of all followers and gamblers, so far as the representation observed, and ladies and children unobscured were accorded courteous treatment.

Mr. C. G. Bowman and sister, Miss Florence, and Misses Patrick of Jackson, Ky., visited relatives here last week. They left for Mammoth Cave Sunday.

DEATHS.

POWELL.—Mr. James Powell, a well known farmer living in the neighborhood of White Plains, died Sunday of consumption, aged about 50 years.

BOX.—Mrs. John Bon died of consumption Saturday at her home on Jeup Avenue, aged 19 years. The interment took place Sunday afternoon in Hopewell cemetery.

ETTES.—Judge J. B. Ettes died at the home of his daughter, in Guthrie, Friday night after a brief illness. Judge Ettes had been City Judge of Adairville for a number of years and was a very influential citizen.

ETTES.—Mr. Benjamin Ettes, the well known traveling man, died last Thursday night in Jackson, Tenn., after a brief illness. He acted as best man in the Lowenthal-Hart wedding and had many friends in this city who will learn with regret of his sudden taking off. His body passed through this city Friday, enroute to Chicago, his home, for interment.

ETTES.—Mary, the little daughter of Mr. J. Sol Fritz, died of brain fever Thursday evening, after an illness of several weeks. She was a very bright and pretty child, whom her parents almost idolized, and the sympathy of their many friends is extended to them in their hour of bereavement. The body was interred in Hopewell cemetery Friday morning.

To Cleanse The System
Effectually yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently overcome habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headaches, colds, or fevers, use Syrup of Figs.
